Friday Morning Bible Study

Creation, Sin, and the Nature of God A Study of Genesis 1-11

Where did we come from? Why is there pain in the world? Who committed the first murder? Why are there so many languages in the world? The first eleven chapters of the book of Genesis have the answers to these questions and more--providing us with the history of the human race in its earliest years prior to the time of Abraham.

Based on a book by pastor-teacher John MacArthur, this 11-week Bible study will be an in-depth look at the creation story, the first murder, Noah and the flood, the first covenant, the Tower of Babel, and the dispersion of the Nations. It will include close-up examinations of Adam, Eve, Cain, Abel, and Noah, as well as careful consideration of key doctrinal themes, such as "The Fall of Man" and "Heritage and Family."

Join us Friday mornings from 9:30 AM - 11:30 AM at the Kingston House of Prayer (KHOP) 447 Division Street. For more information, speak to the Rector.

This Friday, February 10, we will be studying Genesis Chapter 5: Noah & the Ark.

Anglicanism 101 : The Structure of Communion Part1: The Word

Have you ever wondered what's going on during a service of Holy Communion? So many moving parts! And what's the deal with shaking hands in the middle? You're not alone.

Thankfully, a relatively simple overall structure unifies the many moving parts. Most services of Holy Communion—including those throughout the Anglican tradition—depict a four-fold journey from the world, into the presence of God through Word and Sacrament, and back into the world again

This structure finds a biblical precedent in Jesus' exposition of the Scriptures (Word) before making himself known to two disciples in the breaking of the bread (Sacrament) at Emmaus (Luke 24:13-34). It also follows the early Church's example of devoting themselves "to the apostles' teaching [Word] and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread [Sacrament] and the prayers" (Acts 2:42)

After singing praises to God and being gathered together in prayer (Matt 18:20) by the Collect of the Day, the people are ready to hear the Word of God,—first read aloud in the Lesson(s), and then proclaimed and expounded in the Sermon (1 Tim 4:13).

The Church then responds to God's Word by confessing the Nicene or Apostles' Creed as a summary of its faith in both God and His Word.

If heard correctly, God's Word should bring concern for God's world, for which the community then intercedes in the Prayers of the People (1 Tim 2:1).

Before the celebration of Holy Communion, the people must heed two warnings. First, they Paul's warning in 1 Corinthians 11:27-32, to examine themselves before partaking of the Eucharist, through the Confession of Sin and the priest's declaration of Absolution. Second, Christ's warning in Matthew 5:23-24, to reconcile with one another before coming to worship, by exchanging the Peace.

2016 Financial Update

You may recall that in December, the Wardens and Treasurer made a series of announcements reporting that we were behind in our finances, and asked people to prayerfully consider increasing their commitment. The response to this appeal was overwhelming! As a result, we are pleased to announce that do to the generosity and faithful stewardship of so many people at Living Waters, we were able to meet our financial obligations in 2016 and finished the year with a small surplus. Praise be to God!

	Actual	Budget	Fav/(Unfav)
Contributions	$145,037	$141,200	$3,837	2.7%
Expenditures	(142,289)	(141,200)	(1,089)	-0.8%
Difference	$2,748	---	$2,748	1.9%

- Contributions were about 2.7% more than the budgeted revenue, or 1.9% more than actual expenditures.
- Total expenditures were just above budget
- Full financial statements will be available at the Annual Vestry
