Friday Morning Bible Study

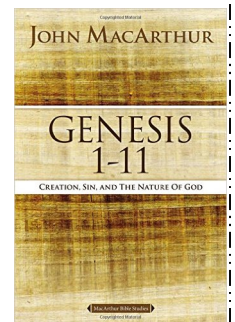

Creation, Sin, and the Nature of God
A Study of Genesis 1-11

Where did we come from? Why is there pain in the world? Who committed the first murder? Why are there so many languages in the world? The first eleven chapters of the book of Genesis have the answers to these questions and more—providing us with the history of the human race in its earliest years prior to the time of Abraham.

Based on a book by pastor-teacher John MacArthur, this 11-week Bible study will be an in-depth look at the creation story, the first murder, Noah and the flood, the first covenant, the Tower of Babel, and the dispersion of the Nations. It will include close-up examinations of Adam, Eve, Cain, Abel, and Noah, as well as careful consideration of key doctrinal themes, such as "The Fall of Man" and "Heritage and Family."

Join us Friday mornings from 9:30 AM - 11:30 AM at the Kingston House of Prayer (KHOP) 447 Division Street. For more information, speak to the Rector.

This Friday, February 3, we will be studying Genesis Chapter 4:8-26.

Life Groups at Living Waters

Small groups were an integral part of the Early Church's structure. The Book of Acts tells us that when the church was first established there were no buildings--people met in the temple and synagogues for their corporate gatherings on the Lord's Day and in homes throughout the week. These groups were small enough to allow individual members to minister to one another, discover and use their spiritual gifts, and be discipled in the teachings of Jesus.

Life Groups at Living Waters are small groups that provide an opportunity for connection, community, and spiritual transformation. There is a place for everyone--from the first steps of finding out more about faith to the deeper questions of life. There are no prerequisites and everyone is welcome and encouraged to join a group. Currently there are 4 Life Groups meeting at Living Waters and more will be starting in the coming months. If you are interested in joining a group, please get a brochure from the Welcome Table or speak to the Rector. Getting involved in a Life Group could be one of the most impor-

FAITH EXPLORED: Adult Sunday School

It is a very challenging time to be a Christian. Much of what the Bible teaches seems to oppose the values of the world around us, sometimes dramatically! Faith Explored will provide an opportunity for individuals to wrestle with age old questions as well as hot topics and current issues faced by believers today, in the context of Scripture and faith.

The next session of Faith Explored will be held next Sunday, February 12 from 9:00-9:50 AM. John Telgmann will be speaking about his recent trip to Mali, West Africa and the Friends of Koura Mission. For more information about Faith Explored, speak to the Rector.

Anglicanism 101 : Ordained Ministry

Anglicans believe in a three-fold order of ministry of bishops, priests, and deacons.

A bishop is the chief pastor who has been commissioned to serve a number of local churches, known as a diocese. A large diocese may have a number of assistant, or suffragan, bishops. Only a bishop can ordain persons to the order of deacon and priest. A bishop may also ordain another bishop, but must do so in the company of other bishops.

A priest is a member of the clergy who has been commissioned to provide pastoral oversight over a congregation or group of congregations. An important part of the priestly role is to administer the sacraments of Holy Communion and Baptism and to extend the assurance of God's forgiveness to those who repent.

A deacon is a member of the clergy who has been commissioned to exercise a servant ministry of proclaiming the gospel, assisting at Holy Communion, and calling the church—by word and example—to its ministry of service to the world. There are 2 kinds of deacons: Transitional deacons serve for a year before being ordained to the priesthood and vocational deacons who are not ordained as priests.
