Everyday Questions DVD Study

“Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience...”

(1 Peter 3:15-16)

Your child's science teacher has convinced them God isn't real. Your close friend was diagnosed with terminal cancer. Your uncle makes fun of your faith. Your neighbour seems uncomfortable when she learned you were a Christian. Life's biggest questions are being asked all around you. Are you hearing the questions? Are you ready for the conversation?

We were created to know God, and all of life is best understood in light of that truth. Everyday Questions, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries' Conversational Apologetics Curriculum, will address how we can learn to discuss God with the people around us in a mature, thoughtful, and relevant manner by recognizing the questions they are asking and being prepared to respond.

Sessions cover four basic worldview topics:

Origin: Where did I come from?

Meaning: Why do I have significance?

Morality: How do I differentiate right from wrong?

Destiny: What happens after death?

A worldview is like a pair of glasses: it's the basic set of assumptions that shape how we see the world around us. A deep understanding of these 4 issues will prepare us to better discuss significant matters with others. By the end of this study, we hope you feel excited by the opportunity to have meaningful conversations about what matters most in life!

Join us Thursday evenings from 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM at the Doering's ~ 726 Chatsworth Place

Lord, Teach Us to Pray: Meditations on the Lord's Prayer

Lenten Speaker Series

Jesus gave us the Lord's Prayer in response to the disciples' request, "Lord, teach us to pray?" There is something extremely significant about the way Jesus answered their question. Many people understand the Lord's Prayer to be a prayer that we are supposed to recite word for word. Others treat it like a 'magic formula,' as if the words themselves have some special power or influence with God. However, the Bible teaches the opposite. God is far more interested in our hearts when we pray than He is with our words. Although it plays a central role in liturgical worship, the Lord's Prayer wasn't given to just be recited as ritual. It was given as an example to show the disciples how to pray—as an outline for prayer that is acceptable to God.

This 6-week speakers series, led by members of the congregation, will examine and reflect on each petition in the Lord's Prayer, and what it says to us about prayer. It's my hope that the insights gained from this series will transform our prayer lives as we pray with new confidence and effectiveness.

Join us Sunday mornings from 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Parish Movie Night ~ A Question of Faith

A Question of Faith follows three families whose lives converge in tragedy, as they question their faith and the God who guides their lives. As each family member deals with these issues, their worlds begin to intertwine. This leads to a chain of events which unknowingly brings the three families closer and closer together. Will the families give in to the loss, pain, and uncertainty that has shattered their lives or will they find the tie that binds them all together through hope, trust, redemption, and goodwill? Join us this Friday, March 2 at 7:00 PM at the Kingston House of Prayer (447 Division St.) for this evening of fun and fellowship. Popcorn and drinks will be provided.

Loonies for Lent

Almsgiving is a common practice during Lent. Moved by the sacrifice of Jesus, many Christians respond to the needs around them by intentionally giving their time, talent, and treasures to others. Film canisters will be available at the Welcome Table—please take them home and fill them with your loonies (or toonies or bills!) And return them Easter Sunday.

All donations will go to the newly established GRACE FUND to be used by the Rector to help people in need.
