

“Behold, My Servant Shall Prosper”
Daily Readings

The prophecies contained in Isaiah 53 deserve to be read frequently, especially during Lent. Although written hundreds of years before the coming of Jesus, the prophet’s rich poetic pictures lead us along the way of sorrows to the foot of the Cross, where we are invited to take Christ’s suffering personally. Mindful that Jesus’ suffering wasn’t aimless, and nor is ours. By the powerful promise of God, a blessed outcome is assured: “Behold, my servant shall prosper.” The following daily readings help us to see our suffering in light of Jesus’, as we journey with Him to the Cross and beyond.

“Behold my servant shall succeed. He will be exalted and lifted up.”
