Canadian Council of Christian Charities Legal Defense Fund

The CCCC Legal Defense Fund has been set up to protect the right of Christian charities to exercise their faith. The Fund provides the means for CCCC to voice concerns on issues that affect the ability of Members to carry out ministry. They are intentional in intervening in court cases, preparing briefs for parliamentary committees, writing op-ed pieces for national newspapers, and academic articles for law journals—all in a bid to ensure that the concerns of Christian ministries are heard and can maintain a faithful presence in the public square.
